Bihar Board Class 11 English Of Remembering God Textual Questions and Answers

Question 1.

Why do we remember God only in sorrow?

Answer:

It is human nature that we remember God only in distress. We pray to God to save and help us. On the other hand when we are in happiness we never remember god and forget Him. We are busy in earning more money and getting more pleasure. But Kabir Das says that if a man remembers and worships God is happiness, he can never be in sorrow, so a man should remember God at all the times.

Question 2.

Who, in your opinion, is greater-Guru or God? Why ? Discuss.

Answer:

Dear friends; we have gathered here to discuss over an important subject that who is greater-Guru or God. You many have different opinions on this issue. But so far think Guru is great her than God. He has created this earth. God is almighty, it is a fact, he is omni potent and present every where. He is eternal. Guruis always present before us and is our guide. He is our well wisher. Kabir was also of the opinion that Guru is greater than God. According to him-Guru and God, both of them are present before him. He is in utter confusion, to whome he should give superiority and touch his fact first. But it is die greatness of Guru wo directed to bow-doiyn before God. It means to touch his (God's) eet. God also becomes pleased with those who.pay respects to their. Guru, In case we are in trouble and loses our faith on God, gurti comes to our help. In means that a man should respect his Guru, then only God will helpus.
