THINK ABOUT IT (PAGE 67)

QUESTION 1. Has Lushkoff become a beggar by circumstance or by choice?

ANSWER: Lushkoff was a middle-aged man and belonged to the Russian choir. He was not a born beggar. He was sacked from the choir because of his drinking habits. He became a beggar by choice as he did not like to work hard at that stage.

QUESTION 3. Is Lushkoff a willing worker? Why, then, does he agree to chop wood for Sergei?

ANSWER: No, he was not a willing worker. He was too weak to work. He had lost his strength and stamina due to his habit of drinking and secondly he was a middle aged man. He agreed to chop wood because of pride and shame and he had been trapped by his own words.

QUESTION 4. Sergei says, “I am happy that my words have taken effect.” Why does he say so? Is he right in saying so?

ANSWER: Sergei looked satisfied with the performance of the beggar and felt happy. When Lushkoff’s job of packing and hauling of the furniture was over, he praised him while handing him a rouble. But he was not right in saying so because Lushkoff had not developed the habit of working hard. He was still an idle fellow.
