2. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions that follows :

In the world, have we made health an end in itself ? We have forgotten that health is really a means to enable a person to do his work and do it well. A lot of modern medicine is concerned with promotion of good health. Many patients as well as many physicians pay very little attention to health; but very much attention to health makes some people imagine that they are ill. Our great concern with health is shown by the medical columns in newspapers, the health articles in popular magazines and the popularity of the television programmes. Yet, it only results in more people with imaginary illness. The healthy man should not be wasting any time talking about health; he should be using health for work he does and the work that good health makes possible.

- (i) What is modern medicine concerned with ? (1)
- (ii) What is the impact of much attention to health ? (2)
- (iii) What should a healthy man do ? (2)

The mountain and the squirrel
Had a quarrel
And the former called the latter
'Little Prig'
Bun replied,
"You are doubtless very big;
But all sorts of things and weather
Must be taken in together
To make up a year
And a sphere.
And I think it no disgrace
To occupy my place.
If I am not so large as you,
You are not so small as I.
And not half so spry;
I'll not deny you make
A very pretty squirrel track.
Talents differ; all is well and wisely put;
If I cannot carry forests on my back
Neither can you crack a nut."

When I went out I stole an orange

I kept it in my pocket

It felt like a warm planet

Lovely where I went smelt of oranges

Whenever I got into an awkward situation

I would take the orange out and smell it

And immediately on even dead branches, I saw

The lovely and fierce orange blossom

That smells so much of joy.
