

Chapter 5

class 9th english solution A LADY WITH A DIFFERENCE

A. Let's Answer :

Q.1. How did Ismat describe the occasion of her birth ?

Ans . Ismat had thus described the occasion of her birth – “ My mother was dressing up to attend the marriage of her friend's daughter in the neighborhood. Word, unannounced. When my brothers and sisters were born nurse used to Come. But my delivery was managed by the sweepers.”

Q.2. How did Ismat chughtai spend her childhood days playing boys games.

Ans. She Played football , gilli danda , tipcat or pitto rode bicycles, , plucked guava and threw them ail over . she wandered about the neighbourhood and generally looked for some mischieg or mischief or the other .

Q.3. How was elementary education imparted to her?

Ans . when Ismat Chughtai was four years old , she was introduced the Arabic first reader to teach alphabets-the baghadadi qaeda. Her early school Education began at agra where she used to go the municipal school along With other children in a palanquin which was carried by two kahars.

Q.4.Which religion did she find the best ?

Ans .She found Mazhab-e-insaaniyat or the religion of humanity the best.

Q.5. ‘ In some sense she always remained a child. Do you agree?

Ans . yes, I agree to the statement. In some sense , she remained curious And precocious (developing pre- maturely)for her whole life. Her love of Mischief and child – life wonder never left her.

Q.6. What light does the story throw on human behavior ?

Ans .The story say that if a child faces , neglect and deprivation as a child, he or she is sure to become a rebel, possessing aggressive nature.

B. Let's Discuss:

Discuss the following in groups or pairs.

a. Gender bias must be discouraged.

Ans . Gender bias is very bad. Parents should not make difference among Their girl –child and boy -child. All children are god – gifted. Be the child , boy Or girl all have the right to get equal love, care and fonding . History has Shown us that when given proper care and right environment , many girls have Proved themselves and made new history of their own touching new skies of