

10. Our Little River

Which is the river closest to your house ?

Our little river twists and turns
It's just knee-deep when summer burns,
How easy is it then to cross,
Cattle and carts just ford across,
The banks slope gently, though they're high,
And in the summer, always dry.

No dirt no mud : it all so clean,
The sand glints with a golden gleam,
And to one side, there stands a bed
Of 'Kash', with white flowers overspread,
Flocks of 'mynahs' gather there
And with their chatter fill the air,
While deep at night the jackals prowl,
Piercing the silence with their howl.

Groves of palm and mango trees
Upon the other bank one sees,
Nestling beneath their leafy shade
The village houses stand arrayed,
Along the bank the children play,
Splash each other, duck and spray,
Or sometimes, having had their bath,
Catch small fish in bits of cloth,
The village women by that spot scrub with sand their pans and pots.
They wash their clothes and have their bath,
Then back they take the homeward path .

And then, often the rains begin
The river fills upto the brim,
It rushes then upon its course
In muddy whirls and deafening roars,
Upon the banks, among the woods
A call rings out in joyful mood,
And all the village wakes again
To mark the festival of the rain.
