A Moonbeam Comes

Deep in the night,
When all is still,
A moonbeam climbs,
The window's sill.

Over your bed,
It sees if sleep has closed your eyes.

A pinch of gold,
Some fairy sand,
Is clasped within that moonbeam's hand.

You are not asleep,
It comes tip-toe on gentle feet.
To touch your eyes,
With golden beams,
And takes you to the land of dreams.
