Q.12 Read the passage carefully and answers the questions given below it.

5

A taxi driver takes us where we want to go. We pay him money to go in his taxi. It is the most common means of transport in a city or a town. As the taxi driver serves our society, so does the lorry driver. A lorry driver carries things for us in his lorry. In this way he makes our lives comfortable. The pilot is also like a driver, he flies an aero plane. His job is more demanding and difficult. The captain and his sailors take a ship across the Sea. The man who drives the train is not a captain or a pilot, but an engine driver.

1. What does a taxi driver do?
2. Who carries the things for us?
3. What is a pilot?
4. Where does the ship sail?
5. Give a suitable title to the passage?

Q.13 Write five lines of the poem from your text book.
