

Class 7 English Honeycomb Chapter 1 Important Questions

7th Class English Chapter-1 Important Questions Set – 1

What were these three things?

These three things were – What is the right time to begin something? Which people should he listen to? What is the most important thing for him to do?

What did the king do to get an answer to these questions?

The king sent messengers throughout his kingdom, promising a large sum of money to anyone who would answer these three questions.

What was the reply to the 1st question?

In reply to the 1st question some said the king must prepare a time table, others said it's was impossible to decide in advance the right time for doing something, while some said do whatever seemed necessary at that time. Some advice the king needed a council of wise men who would help him act at the proper time. Some also advised the king would have to go to the magicians to predict the future.

7th Class English Chapter-1 Important Questions Set – 2

What was the reply to the 2nd question?

In reply to the second question, some said that the people most necessary to the king were his councilors, others said, the priests. A few others chose the doctors. And yet others said that his soldiers were the most necessary.

What was the answer to the third question?

The answer to the third question was that some people said science, others chose to fight, and yet others religious worship was the most important thing to do for him.

Was the king satisfied with the answers? What he did next?

No, the king was not satisfied as the answers to his questions were so different and he gave no reward to anyone. He decided to seek the advice of a certain hermit, who was widely known for his wisdom.

7th Class English Chapter-1 Important Questions Set – 3

What happened to the bearded man running towards the king and the hermit?

They both saw a bearded man running towards them. His hands were pressed against his stomach, from which blood was flowing. When he reached the king he fainted and fell to the ground.

How the king and the hermit did save his life?

The king and the hermit removed the man's clothing and found a large wound in his stomach. The king washed and covered it with his handkerchief, but the blood would not stop flowing. The king re-dressed the wound until at last, the bleeding stopped. The man felt better and asked for something to drink. The king brought fresh water and gave it to him.

Who was the bearded man? What did he tell to the king?

The bearded man was the king's enemy. He told the king that he swore revenge on you because he put his brother to death and seized his property. He knew you had gone alone to see that hermit, and he made up his mind to kill you on your way home.

How did the bearded man wound?

Answer: When he was waiting at the hiding place for the king to return, but the king did not return, so he left his hiding-place, and he came upon your bodyguard, who recognized him and wounded him.

7th Class English Chapter-1 Important Questions Set – 4

What did the bearded man say after the king has saved his life?

When the king saved his life he said he will serve you as your most faithful servant and will order his sons to do the same. And lastly, he said Forgive him.

Why was the king happy?

The king was very happy to have made peace with his enemy so easily and to have won him over as a friend. He not only forgave him but said he would send his servants and his doctor to look after him, and he promised to give back the man his property.

How did the king get answers to his questions from the hermit?

When the king asked hermit, he replied if you had not pitied my weakness yesterday and had not dug these beds for me, you would have gone away. Then that man would have attacked you and you would have wished you had stayed with me. So the most important time was when you were digging the beds. And I was the most important man, and to do me well was your most important business.

evidyarthi