Class 10

Foreword

The National Education Policy (2020), Government of India, envisions transforming school education by equipping students with 21st century skills. The endeavour is to shift focus from rote-learning to acquisition of competencies with a resolve to make education more meaningful and relevant.

The Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE) in its continuous endeavour to improve the quality of education has already introduced some initiatives in this direction. Strengthening these efforts, the Board had signed an MoU with Sri Aurobindo Society (SAS), Pondicherry in November 2019. As a part of this initiative, SAS is supporting CBSE to develop resource materials, train teachers and take other measures that would facilitate adoption of Competency Based Education in schools. SAS has engaged with Australian Council for Educational Research (ACER) as its knowledge partner for this project.

CBSE, in collaboration with SAS and ACER, has prepared this resource material- Curriculum Aligned Competency Based Test Items (Class 10) in February, 2022 which is a compilation of assessment items in English that are aligned to the NCERT/CBSE curriculum. These tasks based on authentic real life situations focus on developing critical understanding among learners in the discipline. Each test covers about 10 questions from a chapter. The assessments, useful for students' practice, are also exemplars for teachers who with their ingenuity can develop many similar items.

Read the given passage and answer the following questions:

It is from these comrades in the struggle that I learned the meaning of courage. Time and again, I have seen men and women risk and give their lives for an idea.

I have seen men stand up to attacks and torture without breaking, showing a strength and resilience that defies the imagination. I learned that courage was not the absence of fear, but the triumph over it.

The brave man is not he who does not feel afraid, but he who conquers that fear. No one is born hating another person because of the colour of his skin, or his background, or his religion.

People must learn to hate, and if they can learn to hate, they can be taught to love, for love comes more naturally to the human heart than its opposite.

Even in the grimmest times in prison, when my comrades and I were pushed to our limits, I would see a glimmer of humanity in one of the guards, perhaps just for a second, but it was enough to reassure me and keep me going. Man's goodness is a flame that can be hidden but never extinguished.

Read the given passage and answer the following questions:

Writing in a diary is a really strange experience for someone like me. Not only because I've never written anything before, but also because it seems to me that later on neither I nor anyone else will be interested in the musings of a thirteen-year-old schoolgirl. Oh well, it doesn't matter. I feel like writing, and I have an even greater need to get all kinds of things off my chest.

'Paper has more patience than people.' I thought of this saying on one of those days when I was feeling a little depressed and was sitting at home with my chin in my hands, bored and listless, wondering whether to stay in or go out. I finally stayed where I was, brooding: Yes, paper does have more patience, and since I'm not planning to let anyone else read this stiff-backed notebook grandly referred to as a 'diary', unless I should ever find a real friend, it probably won't make a bit of difference.

TODAY, Monday, Wanda Petronski was not in her seat. But nobody, not even Peggy and Madeline, the girls who started all the fun, noticed her absence. Usually Wanda sat in the seat next to the last seat in the last row in Room Thirteen. She sat in the corner of the room where the rough boys who did not make good marks sat, the corner of the room where there was most scuffling of feet, most roars of laughter when anything funny was said, and most mud and dirt on the floor. Wanda did not sit there because she was rough and noisy. On the contrary, she was very quiet and rarely said anything at all. And nobody had ever heard her laugh out loud. Sometimes she twisted her mouth into a crooked sort of smile, but that was all. Nobody knew exactly why Wanda sat in that seat, unless it was because she came all the way from Boggins Heights and her feet were usually caked with dry mud. But no one really thought much about Wanda Petronski, once she sat in the corner of the room.
